[...] - With the Motu Proprio of 17 August 2016 (Humanam progressionem), the Dicastery for Promoting Integral Human Development was established, so that development can take place "by attending to the inestimable goods of justice, peace and the care of creation". Beginning in January 2017, four Pontifical Councils - Justice and Peace, Cor Unum, Pastoral Care of Migrants and Itinerant People, and Healthcare Workers - will be merged into this Dicastery. For the time being, I will directly head the section for the pastoral care of migrants in the new Dicastery.[42]
